Email: IPRSU@IPO.GOV.IE

How will your personal data be used?

2. We may use the personal data you provide in the application form and in associated correspondence for the following purpose(s):
 - To verify your identity;
 - To determine your eligibility for the International Protection Regularisation Scheme. This scheme provides a pathway for International Protection applicants who meet the qualifying criteria to obtain permission to reside in the State;
 - To obtain a Garda Vetting Report from the Garda National Vetting Bureau;
 - To enable us to make a decision on your application as part of any future considerations regarding your immigration or citizenship status.

Legal Basis for processing your Personal Data

3. Our legal basis for collecting and processing this data is as follows:
 - To fulfil the function of the Minister for Justice to implement Government policy on Immigration as designated in the Ministers and Secretaries Act 1924 (as amended).
 - Section 8¹ of the Immigration Act 2003

Further processing of your Personal Data

¹ Section 8 of the 2003 Immigration Act empowers an information holder to give to another information holder, on request, information on non-nationals, including personal information, for the purposes of the Refugee Act 1996, or for the purposes of administering the law regarding entry into, or removal from, the State of non-nationals.

4. Where it is necessary and proportionate to do so, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the GDPR, further personal data may be requested or received from/provided to other Public Authorities/competent authorities²/ international organisations for the purpose of:
- Verification of data received from applicants and the precise legal basis for such processing/information sharing is per Section 8 of the Immigration Act 2003, in conjunction with the relevant provision of Data Protection Legislation relating to public interest, substantial public interest and official authority and the Executive Power of the Government established under Art. 28 of the Constitution;
 - Obtaining data on convictions and offences, if any, committed by the applicant. This is per sub-section 55(1)(a) of the 2018 Act;
 - Preventing a threat to national security. This is per sub-section 41 (a) of Section 41 of the 2018 Act.
5. We may also process your personal data for research or statistical purposes as allowed under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the GDPR.

Security of Personal Data

6. The personal data provided will be stored securely on DoJ IT servers. It may be shared, where appropriate, with the following third parties:
- An Garda Síochána;
 - Garda National Immigration Bureau;

Transfer of Personal Data

7. The personal data provided in this form may be transferred to the UK with the following safeguard in place – MOU.

Contact for Queries

8. The contact for any queries in relation to this form is the International Protection Regularisation Scheme, International Protection Office, 79-83 Mount Street, Dublin 2, D02 ND99. The unit may be contacted by email at IPRSU@IPO.GOV.IE.

How long will Personal Data be retained?

² A competent authority means:

- A public authority competent for the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties in the State, including the safeguarding against, and the prevention of, threats to public security, or
- Any other body or entity authorised by law to exercise public authority and public powers for the purposes of the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties in the State, including the safeguarding against, and the prevention of, threats to public security.

9. This data may be retained until ISD can be sure that you will not have any further contact with the Immigration Services. This is an indeterminate period as your immigration history in the State may span a full lifetime. It will be referred thereafter to the Director of National Archives for appraisal under the National Archives Act 1986.

How to Request a copy of your Personal Data

10. You can request a copy of your personal data by completing a Subject Access Request (SAR) form, available:

- at http://www.justice.ie/en/JELR/Pages/Data_Protection or
- from the Data Protection Support and Compliance Office (DPSCO) at the address below.

Forward the completed form by email to subjectaccessrequests@justice.ie or by post to the DoJ Data Protection Officer at the address below. You will be required to verify your identity before the data can be forwarded to you. The time limit for responding to a SAR commences once your identity has been verified.

Your Rights in relation to your Personal Data

11. You have the right to rectify any inaccuracies in your data. To do this you should write to the International Protection Regularisation Scheme, ISD, 79-83 Mount Street, Dublin 2, D02 ND99 or by email to IPRSU@IPO.GOV.IE documenting the inaccuracies which need to be rectified. The right to rectification is not absolute and each request will be considered on its own merits.
12. You have the right, where appropriate, to obtain erasure of your data and/or a restriction on the processing of your data as well as the right to object to the processing of your data. To request this you should write to International Protection Regularisation Scheme, ISD 79-83 Lower Mount Street, Dublin 2, D02 ND99 or by email to IPRSU@IPO.GOV.IE. The right to erasure, restriction or objection is not absolute and each request will be considered on its own merits.
13. You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Commission (DPC). You can contact the DPC by webforms on their website www.dataprotection.ie or by post to 21 Fitzwilliam Square South, Dublin 2, D02 RD28. Further details in relation to your data protection rights can be found in the Department of Justice Data Protection Policy available at: http://www.justice.ie/en/JELR/Pages/Data_Protection
